Show your Craig Cougar
 Pride by ordering a
 Memory Brick

Your name will become a permanent part of the Cougar Pride Path in the Craig Sculpture Garden

The Cougar Pride path will be established as a permanent walk way through the Craig Sculpture Garden located in the interior courtyard. The sculpture garden was established in 2007. There are several student and staff works of art on permanent view. Additional temporary installations will keep the Craig Sculpture Garden continually fresh.

Phase I installation is scheduled for the fall of 2012 and is sponsored by the Craig Art Department and National Art Honor Society. Phase I includes creating a path that will lead through the garden from the south to north entrance. The path will be lined with Cougar Pride Path Memory Bricks. Future phases of the Cougar Pride Path will be available to continue the completion of the path.

School groups and organizations, graduating seniors, alumni, families, employees and community members will be offered the opportunity to purchase a Cougar Pride Memory Brick.

Proceeds from sales will aide in maintenance of grounds and artwork, installation of art pieces, and sponsoring a visiting sculpture artist.
